

Bromley Park Care Home residents enjoy board games and music in the garden

Here at Bromley Park Care Home, our residents love being outside and it's been the perfect weather for it recently!

We have played board games, listened to music, watched the birds and had some great times relaxing together in the sunshine.

We're all hoping this is how the summer will stay!

