

Elvis arrives at Bromley Park Care Home

Bromley Park Care Home residents had a visit from the King himself last week!

Yes, Elvis arrived to entertain our ladies and gents and wow them with his exuberant performanceand outfit!

Our residents absolutely loved every second of the Tribute Act and enjoyed hearing all the classic Elvis songs of the past. Some took to the dance floor to enjoy a boogie.

It was brilliant to see so many happy faces around our Home, as the place buzzed with such a great atmosphere.

(We can confirm that Elvis has now officially 'left the building'!)
