

House of cards and colouring at Bromley Park Care Home

This week at Bromley Park Care Home, Carmen introduced a game of 'House of Cards', where she stacked playing cards on top of each other. Our residents found this very entertaining and watched with gleeful eyes!

We continued our Valentine's heart theme with some colouring of heart pictures in different designs and colours.

Jean was delighted with her new paint sticks and coloured all the pages in her colouring book!

The enjoyment of colouring