

Ice cream delights at Bromley Park Care Home

What a beautiful day it was on Thursday 23 April, with such sunny blue skies here at Bromley Park Care Home.

We thought it was the perfect excuse to bring out ice creams for our residents. We had lots of different varieties to choose from and they went down a treat!

It really felt like summer in our garden and it's these simple pleasures that really do keep us all going at times like these.

