

Love is Listening at Bromley Park Care Home

Last year, together with St Christopher's Hospice, Bromley Park Care Centre took part in filming a new documentary 'Love Is Listening: Dementia Without Loneliness', which was produced in collaboration with Dementia specialist Michael Verde and world-renowned solo percussionist, Dame Evelyn Glennie.

The film provides a valuable insight into how we might rebuild links with those seemingly lost to us through Dementia.

Film screening

This November, Michael Verde will be working with St Christopher's to change societal attitudes towards people with Dementia and a special screening of the film is taking place at the Hospice on Wednesday 5 December from 1:45-3:45pm.

Open to all, the screening is free and will be followed by refreshments.

To book a place, visit: www.stchristophers.org.uk/loveislistening.

You are invited to a unique screening of the new film by Michael Verde

Love Is Listening: Dementia Without Loneliness

Wednesday 5 December 2018
1.45-3.45pm at The Anniversary Centre,
St Christopher's Hospice, 51-59 Lawrie Park
Road, Sydenham, London SE26 6DZ

St Christopher's Hospice presents a unique screening of Love Is Listening, a new film by dementia specialist Michael Verde of Memory Bridge, featuring Jean Vanier of L'Arche and world-renowned percussionist Dame Evelyn Glennie.

This film provides a valuable insight into how we might rebuild links with those seemingly lost to us through dementia. The film's creator, Michael Verde, will be available afterwards to answer questions and participate in discussions. Open to all, the screening is free and will be followed by refreshments. Please book online at www.stchristophers.org.uk/loveislistening

Michael Verde

Dame Evelyn Glennie

Jean Vanier